DIFFICULTIES ENCOUNTERED AND CHALLENGES YET TO BE ADDRESSED:

- a. The Covid-19 pandemic has hampered the work of the commission and its groups, particularly in improving personnel capabilities, one of which is implementing a in persons capacity-building program
- b. EAHC will further optimize the existing organizational functions of EAHC through the Strategic Team Advance Roadmap (STAR) program to implement the Development of hydrographic survey technology and synchronizes the Nautical charts in the future
- c. Implement amendments to EAHC statutes, particularly relating to membership
- d. The EAHC needs to have an extensive in-charge working group supporting the preparation of the capacity-building program in the Region. The MS carries out and broadens training and workshops on the S-100 program within the scope of capacity building in the Region

ACHIEVEMENTS/OUTPUTS/CONCLUSIONS:

- a. EAHC has appointed Indonesia as Chair for TRDC-BOD
- b. China is the Vice Chair of EAHC for 2022-2025
- c. EAHC is committed to building MSDI. Therefore, an MSDI working group meeting will be held in Hanoi, Vietnam. EAHC will activate the Working Group for developing the S-100 Roadmap, MSDI and Capacity building programs
- d. The next EAHC SC meeting will be held in Manado, North Sulawesi, Indonesia, on 14-15 February 2024
- e. In 2022, EAHC successfully implemented a capacity-building program through the TRDC program on the Development and implementation of a regional framework for disaster and management, which Indonesia organizes (hybrid)
- f. C-55 will be updated in 2023 by the member state
- g. The Seabed 2030 project has three strategies to achieve its objective; Crowded Sourced Bathymetry and technical innovation in collecting marine bathymetric data by each member state

ACHIEVEMENTS/OUTPUTS/CONCLUSIONS:

EAHC has conducted EAHC 50 years anniversary webinar on December 9th 2021 by Japan
