

Administrational Overview of the GEOMAC Project

IHO - NIPPON FOUNDATION
Alumni Seminar

25 – 27 October 2023, London

Administrative Overview of the GEOMAC Project

JANUARY

First Annual Coordination Meeting (Taunton / VTC)

- Review of past course
- Plans for next course
- Drafting of IHO Circular Letter inviting participation

Administrative Overview of the GEOMAC Project

APRIL

Second Annual Coordination Meeting (VTC)

- Selection panel meets to select 7 students
- Drafting of IHO Circular Letter confirming participants

Administrative Overview of the GEOMAC Project

APRIL

UK Hydrographic Office

Marcus Haddy (International Training Officer)

- Joining instructions
- Flights and accommodation
- Security arrangements

Administrative Overview of the GEOMAC Project

JULY

UK Hydrographic Team

- Icebreaker event on arrival in Taunton
- Welcome event Skittles evening to meet wider UKHO Staff

Administrative Overview of the GEOMAC Project

SEPTEMBER

IHO Visit

- Motivational Visit

Administrative Overview of the GEOMAC Project

- Duty of Care throughout
- Religious/Faith requirements met
- Arrangements for dental and medical care if required
- Transport arrangements met

Additional requirements during COVID restrictions

- Provision of PPE
- COVID testing
- Social distancing

Administrative Overview of the GEOMAC Project

Accommodation - Bloreng House

- Central location
- Self-contained Apartments

Administrative Overview of the GEOMAC Project

- Course Evaluation
 - Bi-Weekly
 - End of course
- Individual Student Reports and Overall course report
- Postage of training material

Administrative Overview of the GEOMAC Project

Its not all hard work!

Cultural Visits

Social Events

UK Hydrographic
Office

ADMIRALTY
Maritime Data Solutions

Thank you

