

21th Mediterranean and Black Seas Hydrographic Commission (MBSHC) Conference

Hotel Playa Victoria, Cádiz, España (Spain), 11 - 13 June 2019

The 21th MBSHC conference will be held in Hotel Playa Victoria, in Cádiz (Cádiz province), Andalucía (Region), Spain.

History

Founded about 3000 years ago by the Phoenicians, Cádiz is the oldest city in Western Europe. Successive settlers left a cultural imprint which still lasts in the character of “gaditanos”: Phoenicians, Greeks, Carthaginians, Romans, Visigoths and Arabs have left archaeological sites and monuments from each era.

This peninsula, in the middle of the Andalusian Atlantic coast, has managed to preserve an important historical legacy due to its commercial importance along with excellent beaches and exquisite regional cuisine.

This city offers visitors a walk through its neighbourhoods full of history; the Barrio de la Viña, the best place to enjoy the Carnivals or the “Pescaíto” (fried fish) of the Bay; the Old Town, where most of the monuments are grouped and the Barrio del Pópulo, from medieval origin.

The Hotel Playa Victoria is a four-star urban hotel on the Victoria beach in Cádiz. This hotel in Cadiz itself is located next to the ocean and allows you to enjoy stunning views and a direct access to Victoria Beach.

It is located in the place where the Playa Victoria spa used to be. In the hotel you can also enjoy and relax in the outdoor pool and solarium on the beach.

Each room at the Playa Victoria de Cádiz hotel has a private terrace with side and frontal views of the Atlantic and Victoria Beach. Conceived to enjoy long stays, the rooms have large closets.

- 183 double rooms (65 are already blocked)
- 1 room for the disabled.
- Queen Size bed or two singles bed.
- Multimedia applications through LCD screen.
- Individual air conditioning.
- 32 "LCD TV.
- Satellite TV
- Minibar with selected products.
- Hair dryer.
- Safety box with plug for the laptop.
- Pillow menu.
- Room service during the day.
- Free Wi-Fi in all facilities.

The restaurant of the Playa Victoria Hotel "Isla de León" provides the best of Cadiz cuisine with international touches. Its cuisine, based on traditional recipes, offers the best products from the province of Cádiz, interior and coast. Located on the first floor of the hotel, you can enjoy beautiful views of the ocean. It has special menus for those who have any food allergies.

Anyway, there are many restaurants, pubs and entertainment, on the seafront promenade (you can go around Cadiz walking through parks or promenades) including beach bars.

If you wish to stay at an alternative hotel there are several other hotels recommended by IHM in the área:

1. Parador de Cádiz, 5*, <https://www.parador.es/es/paradores/parador-de-cadiz>
2. Hotel Occidental Cádiz, 4* <https://www.barcelo.com/es/occidental-hotels/hoteles/espana/andalucia/cadiz/occidental-cadiz/>

How to get to Cádiz

There are three recommended airports:

1. Sevilla (125 km from Cádiz), <http://www.aena.es/es/aeropuerto-sevilla/index.html>. 75 destinations: Amsterdam, London, Marrakech, Malta, Milano, Munich, Nice, Paris, Rome, Rabat, Tangier, Turin, Verona, Venice, etc.
2. Jerez de la Frontera (40 km from Cádiz), <http://www.aena.es/es/aeropuerto-jerez/index.html>. Four daily flights from Madrid and three from Barcelona, and others depended of the departure airport: Bilbao, Dusseldorf DUS, Frankfurt FRA and HAHN, Hamburg HAM, London/Stansted STN and Palma de Mallorca.
3. Madrid (652 km from Cádiz), <http://www.aena.es/es/aeropuerto-madrid-barajas/index.html>

Web pages of all Spanish airports list information about Public transportation (in the Spanish and English languages).

The screenshot shows the AENA Sevilla Airport website. At the top, there are navigation tabs for 'passengers', 'choose airport', 'airlines', 'commercial businesses', 'corporate', and 'shareholders and investors'. The main header features the AENA logo, a 'flight info' button, and a search bar. Below the header, the page is titled 'Sevilla Airport' with the IATA code 'SVQ' and current weather '19°C / 3°C'. A secondary navigation bar includes links for 'transport and car park', 'airport guide', 'shops, restaurants and vip services', 'plan your trip', 'get to know us', and 'tourism'. The main content area is divided into several sections: 'Rights', 'destinations', and 'planning' with search fields; a 'Visit Seville' banner with a camera icon; 'airlines' with a search for company codes; 'departures' and 'arrivals' with a dropdown for 'SEVILLA (SVQ)' and a destination search; 'shops and duty free'; 'vip services' with a 'vip lounge' button; 'book car park' with fields for entrance, departure, and promotional code; 'road access' with a dropdown for 'A' and 'B' (Passengers terminal) and a 'getting there' button; 'airlines' with a search for company codes; 'restaurants and cafeterias'; 'car rental'; and 'public transport' with a search for how to get to or leave the airport.

What electricity supply is used in Spain?

Spain uses 220/230 volts AC 50Hz electricity supply. The plugs are type F.

What Tax system is used?

At present, in Spain there are three types of VAT, the amount of which is the same for professionals, individuals and legal entities. A summary is presented for those attending the 21st Conference of the MBSHC

General VAT

The general VAT is in most widespread use. It is applied by default to most products and services. This includes fashion, decoration, electronics and appliances, vehicles ... And almost any professional service that is not included in the categories of reduced VAT, super-reduced VAT or VAT exempt. The general VAT rate is 21%.

VAT reduced

On the other hand, reduced VAT taxes necessary products, including food, water, purchase of new homes, and pharmaceutical products (not medicines), as well as some services such as attending fairs, museums and exhibitions.

This type of reduced VAT is also applicable to passenger transport, hotel services, bars and restaurants, spas and food and beverage supply, and amateur sports events. The reduced VAT in Spain is 10%.

Super reduced VAT

Finally, the super-reduced VAT tax 4% is applied to basic necessities. This includes products such as bread, milk, cheese, eggs, fruit, vegetables, legumes and root vegetables, medicines for human use, and books, magazines and newspapers.

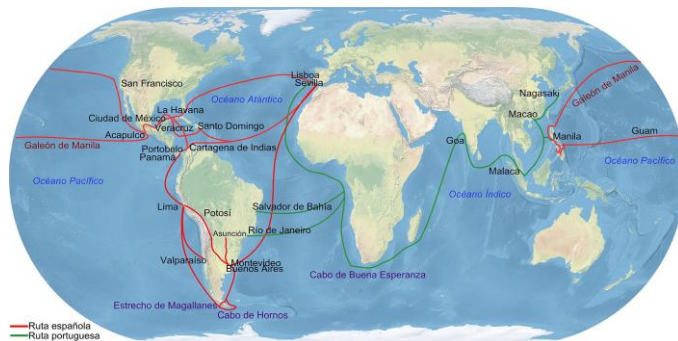

Do I have to tip?

Tipping hospitality industry staff (waiters, bar staff and hotel porters), and taxi drivers, is not mandatory and there is no standard practice. Tipping is only given in case of good service.

Can I drink the water?

All water in the Spain can be drunk straight from the taps, however if you prefer bottled water it is readily available from all shopping malls, pubs, cafés and small stores.

More History and tourist information

It was for many years in the seventeenth, eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Cádiz was one of the most important ports in the maritime traffic with the Indies: Africa, America and Asia. It was the “international business center” of the time along with Seville, with the famous House of Contracting (Casa de la Contratación), founded in 1503 and moved to Cádiz in 1717, and its senior pilot (created in 1508), in charge of examining the pilots who sailed to the Indies, and of drawing the maps or navigation charts and the real standard or model map of the New World where all the discoveries were recorded, until 1519 when the post of cartographer was created.

The House guarded secret nautical information and cartography to prevent this information from falling into the hands of foreign powers.

Beaches, dunes and salt lakes make up the Bay, a natural and aquatic park where Cádiz is located, surrounded by the Atlantic Ocean. Its waters are cooler than those of the Mediterranean Sea, so it is a pleasure to walk and bathe in them.

The “Costa de la Luz”, divided between the provinces of Huelva and Cádiz, also offers a multitude of destinations that combine culture and leisure. And for lovers of the natural environment, there is nothing better than going through the Doñana National Park, declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO.
