The RT-PCR examination is upon arrival at the Ngurah Rai Airport Denpasar, Bali, and it costs around $ 20 (US Dollar);
2. Foreigner travelers to fill out the electronic Health Alert Card (e-HAC) through the Peduli Lindungi application, which can be downloaded for free at <https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=com.telkom.tracencare> and <https://apps.apple.com/us/app/pedulilindungi/id1504600374>

It also can be done manually after arriving at Ngurah Rai Airport Denpasar, Bali.

3. However, we will arrange to pick you up from the airport and assist your needs at arrival.

We really understand that this information is very important for you to prepare tickets and hotels booking. However, we are sure that situation will improve and will make sure to monitor and update the situation and inform you ASAP.
