

ARCTIC REGIONAL HYDROGRAPHIC
COMMISSION

Virtual Science Forum 2020

Tuesday, August 11, 7:30 AM - 11:30 AM (EDT)

The Arctic Regional Hydrographic Commission (ARHC) is convening its annual Arctic Science Forum to share experiences, insights and information concerning activities of interest to the hydrographic services community with responsibilities in the Arctic region. As Chair of the ARHC, the U.S. is proud to host the 2020 ARHC Science Forum virtually, which presents an opportunity for a wider audience to participate than in previous years.

Please register in advance to help the organizers, speakers, and hydrographic offices prepare by clicking here to receive the GoToWebinar link for the Forum.

Please feel free to share the news of the Forum and the open invitation with your colleagues to join, and I hope to see you on August 11.

Rear Admiral Shepard M. Smith
Director, NOAA Office of Coast Survey
Chair, Arctic Regional Hydrographic Commission

Meeting documents, including the agenda which highlights many topics of interest bearing on the health and welfare of the Arctic, will be available here, beginning on Monday, July 27.
