

Sailing Directions for Finnish Waters

by the Finnish Hydrographic Office

27th Baltic Sea Hydrographic Conference
20 - 22 September 2022, Agenda item C6

Sailing Directions for Finnish Waters

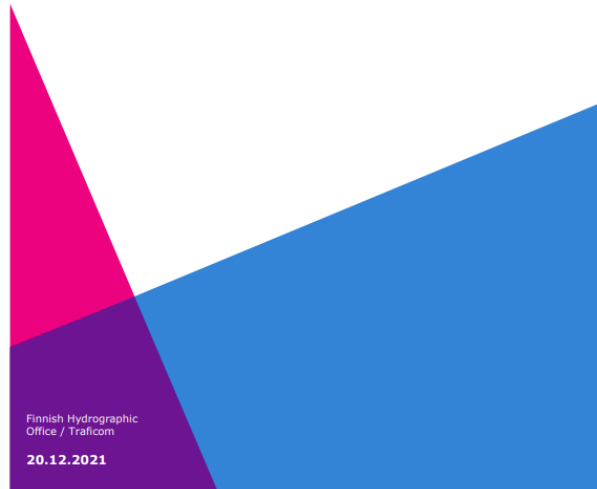

The new nautical publication Sailing Directions for Finnish Waters has been published since December 2021. The publication contains general information about maritime transport channels and navigation in specific fairways. The information is prepared particularly for international operators.

Finnish Transport and Communications Agency

Sailing Directions for Finnish waters

Part 1 - General Information

Likenne- ja viestintävirasto
Transport- och kommunikationsverket
Finnish Transport and Communications Agency

Sailing directions for Finnish waters

Part 2 - Main approach channels

2.3.3 - Bay of Bothnia

Sailing Directions for Finnish Waters

The Finnish Sailing Directions are aimed at supporting navigation beside Nautical Charts

As a part of the N2000 fairway and nautical chart reform, Traficom will also start publishing Sailing Directions.

The first edition of the Sailing Directions was published 20 December 2021.

Part 1 - Sailing directions for Finnish waters, general information

Sailing directions for Finnish waters - Part 1, contains general information, guidelines and links to further information.

https://fiho.fi/npub/sd/sd_1_EN.pdf (External link)

Part 2 - Channel descriptions of Main approach channels

The channel descriptions include depth- and design-data with general notes on usage of the main approach channels.

Main approach channels 2.3.3 - Bay of Bothnia

https://fiho.fi/npub/sd/SD_233_EN.pdf (pdf)

Thank You !